an ideal location

Just a few hours away from Europe's major capital cities, Monaco is the ideal place to host or design your incentive trips – a place where history, surroundings and international events come together in an outstanding setting to give you the best the Riviera has to offer. Choosing Monaco means choosing the experience and exposure of a globally recognised venue.

setting the tone

Welcome to a country that has it all: whether you seek intimate, festive, glamorous, modern or historical surroundings, you will find what you need in Monaco, where every hotel has its own flavour. The Principality offers a host of different surroundings, from the charm of the Belle Epoque and the roaring twenties to contemporary refinement. With 2,700 rooms in three- and four-star luxury hotels, only a step away from beaches, terraces, gala halls, cabarets and casinos, Monaco offers fairy-tale backdrops and outstanding attractions that are sure to strike the perfect tone for your incentive campaigns.

The Monaco Convention Bureau: a springboard to success

The Monaco Convention Bureau is part of the Direction du Tourisme et des Congrès, a government service. It provides a linchpin between your needs and Monaco's various service providers, such as hosting agencies, hotels and conference centres, offering exclusive, one-stop services in a personalised manner, impartially and free of charge. The Monaco Convention Bureau provides valuable logistical support and plays a crucial role in helping you carry through your plans successfully.

Our website at www.visitmonaco.com lists all services available in the Principality, covering hotels, cultural activities, sporting fixtures and special events.

A whole range of leisure pursuits

Just a stone's throw from the Italian coastline, at the heart of the French Riviera, nestled between mountains and Mediterranean, Monaco is a country that has everything to offer, with a whole range of leisure pursuits. Whatever your event, you will find activities to enhance and energise your stay at any time of year. Jump into a helicopter to reach the best ski slopes in a matter of minutes or put out to sea to escape the madding crowd. Choose from a host of water and air-borne pursuits, motor sports, sporting and tourist events, relaxation and spas to enhance your experience through a range of activities as exciting as they are varied.

A cultural tradition

The Orchestre Philharmonique de Monte Carlo has already celebrated its centenary and the Ballets de Monte Carlo are just as splendid as they were in Diaghilev's day. Monaco continues to bear the hallmark of culture. Whether traditional, trendy or truly avant-garde, events unfold one after another in memorable style. Operas, concerts, ballets, theatre, cinema, exhibitions, fine arts... all bear witness to a lively culture and an open-minded approach.
