48 historic hours in Monaco

1st and 2nd July 2011

On 1st and 2nd July the whole of Monaco will be buzzing with excitement when it celebrates the wedding of HSH Prince Albert II and Miss Charlene Wittstock.

Two days of exceptional festivities which everyone who has enjoyed the experience will remember forever.

So for 48 hours you too can experience this princely event like a special guest.

Attended by the Princely Couple

Thursday 30th June Stade Louis II

8.30pm: Jason Hartman Concert
10:00pm Eagles Concert
Free tickets available for collection from Stade Louis II from 16th to 18th June for those living and working in Monaco and neighbouring communities.

Friday 1st July

9:00am

The helicopter takes off from Nice Airport and 7 minutes later, after flying over the Mediterranean and Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat it arrives in Monaco. Especially for the wedding, the pilot will make a small detour over the Rock. A guaranteed impression costing less than you think (one hundred Euros one way). At the Monaco heliport, a shuttle will take you to your final destination, a service provided free of charge...

During these two unique days, you will also be able to enjoy a panoramic helicopter tour at a very special rate (50 euros per person). The stage is set. These two days of festivities promise to be an unforgettable experience.

You can of course take your car; all roads into Monaco will be fully open. All public car parks in the Principality will be free from midday. Even better, use the trains. Additional trains will be laid on, even late into the night. (To optimise your travel on foot, download "Monaco malin" from www.gouv.mc) Within Monaco, all buses will be free over both days.

10:00am

A coffee at the La Condamine Market (Place d'Armes) where you can immerse yourself in the real Monaco at a Provençal market where you will find the famous barbajuans (vegetable fritters to be enjoyed warm), socca or pissaladière (famous for being the best on the Riviera). While you stroll among the stalls, your children can enjoy the small adjoining park in the shade of the pine trees.

10:50am

All aboard the bus (free over both days) for Monte-Carlo.

11:00am

Window shopping at the Carré d'Or in the luxury Metropole Shopping Galerie. During the wedding many shopkeepers will welcome you with a glass of Champagne and petits fours! Others will offer you exceptional discounts as their way of celebrating the general jubilation. And despite the early hour, why not taste of a red and white éclair or famous macaroon, temporary and unique creations to celebrate the wedding.

12:00pm

Try racing a car on the legendary Monaco circuit! Get into the world's most environmentally friendly supercar (from 0 to 100 km/h in 3.5 seconds). CO<sub>2</sub> emissions: 0. Free road test by appointment.

12:30pm

Time for an aperitif. A glass of special Princely Wedding vintage Perrier-Jouët champagne, accompanied by tapas and hors d'oeuvres while watching the Principality from the Larvotto Beach, La Condamine or even the famous Place du Casino. Don't miss the opportunity to stroll in the cool shade of the many gardens scattered throughout the Principality and relive the impression left by Princess Grace along the path with 25 illustrated panels.

1:00pm

From great Michelin-starred chefs (Alain Ducasse will however be cooking for the Princely Wedding) to the small terrace bistrot and beach restaurant, the Principality has 170 excellent places to eat. A few examples can be found on the <http://mariage.visitmonaco.com> website such as a 35-euro menu (including glass of champagne) or even a 14-euro menu comprising a regional dish, special "wedding" beer and a coffee.

3:00pm

Tour of Monaco by free bus or on foot, not forgetting the boat-bus which is also free and will take you across Port Hercule. Stop at Fontvieille, in the shopping arcade where the ladies can enjoy a free "princess" makeover from the professionals, then visit the Museum of Stamps and Coins (admission free during the wedding) to buy "first issue" stamps and envelopes featuring the Princely couple.

Friday 1st July 5:00pm

Civil ceremony

Broadcast live from the Prince's Palace on giant screens

5:00pm

Comfortably sat on a café terrace, eyes glued to the screens, a glass of champagne in hand, the wedding itself gets underway with the civil ceremony.

7:00pm

Browse dozen of exclusive offers over these two exceptional days by visiting "<http://mariage.visitmonaco.com>" on your smartphone. The champagne is still flowing. Live musical events will transform your evening into an unforgettable experience.

8:00pm

Dine under the stars, BBQ on a private beach or while watching a musical show, everyone chooses their own pace before enjoying the unique experience of the Jean Michel Jarre Concert on the South Embankment of Port Hercule.

Until 9:30pm

Enjoy the exceptional late night opening of the Oceanographic Museum (during the day free ice creams will be handed out on the Museum's east terrace), specially decorated in red and white.

10:00pm

The concert starts. The Jean Michel Jarre Concert at Port Hercule will match those produced in the world's greatest cities. We remember Paris, Berlin, Houston, just as we will remember Monaco 2011 forever. The show will end with a breathtaking fireworks display.

Attended by the Princely Couple

Friday 1st July Port Hercule - 10:00pm Concert Jean Michel Jarre

Free seats.
Unreserved seating.

Midnight

The night is still young. Monaco knows how to party. The night is off to a warm and festive start.

SATURDAY 2nd JULY

9:00am

Breakfast on your private balcony for those who have opted for the "Princely Wedding" package offered by various hotels in the Principality. For the more energetic, a jog or walk along the Larvotto's 1370m-long "Golden Foot Promenade", overlooking Avenue Princesse Grace and the sea, followed by a dip in the crystal clear water of the marine reserve among its unspoiled Mediterranean wildlife.

10:00am

To continue or begin your fitness and well-being routine, enjoy a revitalising treatment at one of the Principality's Spas. Many "Wedding Special" packages should convince you.

11:00am

Explore the magnificent exhibitions at the New National Museum of Monaco (Villa Paloma and Villa Sauber) or even the exquisite and little known "Chapelle de la Visitation". All completely free of charge for the occasion.

1:00pm

Lunch on the beach or terrace, "princely" brunch in one of Monaco's iconic establishments, alone, as a couple, a family or with friends, everyone will find their perfect "Wedding Special" package.

3:00pm

"Princely Wedding Special" shopping in the souvenir shops, china, fans and objects featuring the Princely Couple's monogram for gifts or unique souvenirs that will become true collectors' items!

4:00pm

Choose the best spot to attend the religious ceremony. The moment when the eyes of the whole world will be on the Principality to witness the union between the Prince and the future Princess of Monaco, experience this event live on the many giant screens throughout the city.

Saturday 2nd July
5:00pm

Religious ceremony

Broadcast live from the Prince's Palace on giant screens

Saturday 2nd July - 6.30pm
Bouquet Ceremony

The Princely couple will leave the Palace for Sainte-Dévote's Church. The procession will pass along Avenue de la Porte Neuve, Avenue du Port and Boulevard Albert I, and return to the Palace using the same route.

The public will be able to take up positions along the entire route.

Broadcast live on giant screens (see the locations indicated on the map on the back of the icon opposite)

8:30pm

Follow the dynamic and lively trend of the many celebrations organised here and there in the Principality's establishments, hotels and restaurants, to celebrate the Princely Wedding. Here a Garden Party, there a barbecue or even a cocktail party... There are plenty of opportunities to enjoy yourself.

Saturday 2nd July
Port Hercule - 11:30pm
Fireworks display

11:30pm

Attend the dazzling fireworks display that will close the two days of celebrations around this Princely Wedding.

The party will continue late into the night celebrating until dawn when you can enjoy a salutary Sunday brunch before relaxing besides the swimming pool, eyes still filled with wonder.

Midnight

Continue the festivities until the small hours. Don't worry about getting back; the SNCF has scheduled plenty of trains right up until dawn to provide you with transport.
